

Nettlebed Creamery

Nettlebed Creamery is an award-winning, artisan cheese business in South Oxfordshire, with a goal to make the finest artisan cheese in the country in a way that is synchronous with the environment and the seasons.

Following their aim to make the journey from farm to food to fork as uninterrupted as possible, Nettlebed Creamery contribute to the establishment of food supplies outside of the grip of big-business farming – changing the world, one cheese at a time!

Taste the benefits of organic farming and good environmental practice through these delicious cheeses, available at Savages.
