

Auntie Caroline's Pickled Onions & Chutneys

Auntie Caroline has been on a quest to find the perfect pickled onion her whole life, and so in October 2013 she decided to make her own. With that, Auntie Caroline's Pickled Onions started!

Auntie Caroline's pickles are made with a blend of vinegars. They are always crunchy and highly addictive, with many customers eating the whole jar in one sitting! Auntie Caroline's popular pickled onions have even featured on BBC Radio 4's The

A range of chutneys are also available, including gluten-free varieties. Unlike other chutneys that blend all the ingredients into mush, Auntie Caroline brings out exactly what's in a chutney, the different textures and sensations in one mouthful! Each ingredient is sourced locally as much as possible and doesn't contain any preservatives, flavourings, or colourings, with very little sugar!
